These options specify: the coverage (e.g. whether UK or International); Image supply; the data content of the Records; the file format; and the projected usage (i.e. maximum number of Records).

NBSL will provide you with a password for the Web Services ("the Password") together with such other technical information and support as are reasonably required. 8. Warranty

NBSL uses all reasonable efforts to ensure the accuracy of NBD Data and to keep NBD Data up-to-date, but does not warrant that NBD Data is accurate, complete or up-to-date and, to the maximum extent permissible under law, does not accept responsibility or liability for the consequences of NBD Data not being accurate, complete or up-to-date.

NBSL warrants that it holds all necessary rights to supply NBD Data to you to be used for the Permitted Purposes, and that the grant of the licence in Clause 3 above will not violate any copyright or other proprietary right of any third party. Subject to Clause 9 below, NBSL agrees to indemnify, defend and hold you harmless from any breach by NBSL of this warranty, on condition that you allow NBSL to have sole control of the defence and settlement of any such claim, and give all reasonable assistance to NBSL in the defence of such claim.

Except as expressly set out in this Agreement all conditions or warranties, express or implied, statutory or otherwise (including, without limitation, fitness for purpose) are hereby expressly excluded to the maximum extent permitted by law.

9. Limitation of liability

NBSL shall not be liable to you, in any event, for any loss of profit, revenue, business, goodwill or contracts or for any indirect, special or consequential loss, damage, cost or expense, whether caused by the negligence of NBSL, its servants or agents or otherwise and whether or not such loss, damage, cost or expense was foreseeable.

NBSL shall not be liable or be deemed to be in breach of the Agreement by reason of any delay in performing, or any failure to perform, any of NBSL's obligations if the delay or failure was due to any cause beyond NBSL's reasonable control.

NBSL's total liability under this Agreement in any one Contract Year shall, in any event (to the maximum extent permissible under law) be limited, at NBSL's option, to either (a) the sum of Payments paid by you to NBSL in the Contract Year in which a default arises; or (b) the replacement of the defective data or services as the case may be.

Nothing shall limit either Party's liability for death or personal injury caused by its proven negligence.

10. Intellectual property rights

You acknowledge and agree that NBD Data is owned by NBSL or (where relevant) NBSL's third-party suppliers and is protected by United Kingdom database rights, copyright laws, international treaty provisions and all other applicable national, European and/or international laws. All rights in NBD Data remain the property of NBSL or its third-party suppliers and no rights therein pass to you under this Agreement save for the licence as set out above.

NBSL shall have the right to require you, by written notice, to cease using any part of the NBD Data if such data infringes intellectual property rights or infringes any law or regulations. If NBSL gives such notice and you fail to comply with it, NBSL shall have no liability to you in the event of any action against you relating to your use of the data concerned.

11. Confidentiality

Each Party acknowledges that it may learn confidential information of the other Party. Both Parties agree at all times to keep confidential any such information revealed by the other which is disclosed under this Agreement, unless the information: is made public by the supplying Party or enters the public domain; was already legally in the possession of the receiving Party without restriction as to disclosure; was obtained from a third party who is lawfully authorised to disclose it, or is required to be disclosed by law.

12. Marketing and promotion

NBSL will have the right to list you as a customer of NBSL in any public context where NBSL lists other customers. You will have the right to list NBSL as a data supplier in any public context where you list other service providers. Otherwise, any public or promotional material produced by either Party and mentioning the other Party will be subject to agreement between the Parties.

13. Third party licence

If so selected and specified by you, NBSL will supply you with NBD Data derived from "Third Party Data", that is, data that is supplied and/or licensed to NBSL by a third party data provider (the "Third Party Data Provider") to be used and/or sub-licensed by NBSL under the terms of an agreement between NBSL and the Third Party Data Provider (the "Third Party Data Licence").

In the event that, during the term of this Agreement, the Third Party Data Licence or the supply of Third Party Data to NBSL is terminated, NBSL shall, without incurring any liability under the Agreement, immediately cease supplying any NBD Data derived from the Third Party Data. NBSL shall promptly notify you in writing of this, and the Parties agree to negotiate, on a reasonable basis, either (i) to agree on a mutually acceptable alternative source to replace the Third Party Data together with a revised fee if applicable; or (ii) to agree the appropriate level of Payments for the continued supply of NBD Data (without anything derived from the Third Party Data). In the event that the Parties fail to reach agreement on either option within 90 days, then either Party shall have the right to terminate the Agreement on not less than 30 days' written notice to the other.

14. Use and ownership of images (if applicable)

You acknowledge that NBSL does not claim to hold any intellectual property rights in the Images supplied, and that nothing in the Agreement grants any intellectual property rights in the Images to you or any licence to you to use the Images for a particular purpose.

You acknowledge that copyright in the supplied Images is, in all cases, retained by the original copyright owner (or its assignee as the case may be), that no copyright will pass to you under the Agreement and that you are solely responsible to the copyright owner for any use which you make of the supplied Images. You agree to fully indemnify NBSL against any claim brought against NBSL on the basis that your use of a supplied Image has infringed the rights of the copyright owner.

NBSL uses all reasonable efforts to ensure the accuracy and quality of the Images supplied, but does not warrant that supplied Images will be accurate, complete or up to date and does not accept responsibility or liability for the consequences of any Image not being accurate, complete or up to date.

In order to support appropriate use of supplied Images, you agree:

- a) that you will not hold out to be the owner of the supplied Images;
- b) that you will not alter, modify or distort a supplied Image in any way (except by changing size or storage format as required);
- c) that whenever you display a supplied Image, it is accompanied by information reasonably identifying the product to which it relates; and
- d) in the event that NBSL notifies you that a specified supplied Image must be withdrawn on the insistence of the copyright owner, you will promptly delete the specified Image and any copies of it from your displays, records and systems and will make no further use of it.

Upon termination of the Agreement, you will cease to use the supplied Images, and will destroy all copies of them, and will confirm in writing to NBSL within 30 days of the date of termination that you have done so.

15. Additional services (if applicable)

If requested and agreed, NBSL will supply you with access to BDOL for the duration of this Agreement (the version, number of users and applicable fee will be as specified in the NBD Web Services Agreement).

Upon termination of the Agreement, the subscription to BDOL may be continued by mutual agreement, but fees will be at the standard rate. You agree to use BDOL only in accordance with the applicable standard terms and conditions issued separately by NBSL.

If requested and agreed, NBSL will supply you with a copy of the NBD Organisation File (frequency and applicable fee will be as specified in the NBD Web Services Agreement).

For the avoidance of doubt, the contents of NBD Organisation File are NBD Data, and as such are subject to all terms and conditions in this Agreement, concerning the use of NBD Data by the Customer.

Furthermore, and in particular, the NBD Organisation File is provided on strict condition that you may not allow it to be used to compile a competing database of organisations in the book trade, and also may not allow it to be used for direct mailing or any other marketing purposes, whether by you or by any third party.

16. Miscellaneous

The terms and conditions relating to confidentiality, liability and intellectual property rights shall continue in full force and effect despite termination of this Agreement for whatever reason.

Failure or neglect by either Party to enforce at any time any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be construed to be a waiver of its rights hereunder nor in any way affect the validity of the whole or any part of this Agreement nor prejudice its rights to take subsequent action.

Termination of this Agreement shall be without prejudice to any other rights or remedies either Party may be entitled to hereunder or at law and shall not affect any accrued rights or liabilities of either Party.

Unless otherwise specifically stated herein this Agreement does not create any rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 which are enforceable by any person who is not a party to it and no person who is not a party to this Agreement may enforce any of its terms or rely on any exclusion or limitation contained in it.

Unless otherwise expressly stated herein, all notices which are required to be given hereunder shall be in writing and shall be sent to the address of the recipient as set out in the NBD Web Services Agreement.

Neither Party may assign this Agreement without the consent of the other Party, which consent will not be unreasonably refused or delayed, except that NBSL shall be free to assign any or all of its rights and obligations under this Agreement to another company within its group of companies.

This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties in respect of the subject matter and supersedes all prior agreements, negotiations and discussions between the Parties relating to it. No alteration or amendment will be binding unless it has been agreed in writing by authorised representatives of both Parties. All headings used in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall be disregarded for the purpose of any interpretation of this Agreement.

If any term of this Agreement shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the remaining terms or provisions shall remain in full force and effect and such invalid, illegal or unenforceable terms and provisions shall be deemed not to have been part of this Agreement.

This Agreement will be interpreted in accordance with the laws of England. The Parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.
